

JENKS POM BOOSTER CLUB
BYLAWS
Updated 1/2022

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of this nonprofit organization shall be the JENKS POM BOOSTER CLUB; hereafter referred to as JPBC.

ARTICLE II OBJECTIVE

The objectives of the JPBC shall be:

SECTION 1.To lend all possible support to the Jenks Pom Squads.

SECTION 2.To enhance communication between squads.

SECTION 3.To provide fundraising opportunities.

ARTICLE III MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. ACTIVE MEMBER: All parents or legal guardians of pom squad members who affirm the objectives of the JPBC and pay an annual membership fee of $25.00 per pom squad member shall be considered active members with one voting privilege per pom squad member for a period of one year. Membership fees shall be deposited into the General Fund treasury account participating squad. However, parent membership in JPBC is not a requirement for student participation in pom.

SECTION 2. ASSOCIATE MEMBER: Anyone interested in the progress and development of the pom squads and pays $25.00 or more shall be considered an associate member without voting privileges.

ARTICLE IV FINANCES

Section 1: Fundraising

- A. Based on the fundraiser, all funds raised by JPBC shall be deposited to either the General Fund or the member's account. Only those squad members with JPBC membership by parents and /or guardians may receive money from JPBC
- B. Each pom member and parent shall be asked to help plan, coordinate and work on fundraising activities which shall provide financial support. Any member not willing to participate in fundraising shall accept full responsibility for expenses incurred. No participant shall be exempt from required fundraising activities.
- C. Fundraising benefits may not exceed a member's expenses for the year.
- D. If a pom member accumulates funds from fundraising in excess of the fiscal year's cost, in order to keep our non-profit status, the following options are available:

1. Excess funds from fundraising may be transferred forward to the next pom year for a current pom member who makes a squad after tryouts.
2. Excess funds from fundraising may be transferred to the account of a sibling who remains in the Jenks Pom Program or is a part of another Jenks Booster Club (transfers have to be approved by the Jenks Activity Office). Funds may not be transferred or sold to another student who is not a sibling.
3. Upon departure from the Pom program, excess funds from fundraising shall be donated to the Jenks Pom General Fund for administrative and/or scholarship opportunities to be determined at the discretion of the Jenks Pom Executive Board and the Jenks Pom Coordinator(s).

SECTION 2. UNIFORMS

- A. The purchase of new uniforms shall be left up to the discretion of the pom Coordinator(s) with the approval of the JPBC and Athletic Director.
- B. Uniforms may be purchased new by the squad member or rented from the JPBC at the discretion of the Coordinator(s).
- C. Each member renting a uniform shall pay a nonrefundable, minimum annual rental fee of $125.00 and a one-time deposit of $75.00, refundable upon exit from the program. Fees may increase with JPBC approval.
- D. All uniforms and school equipment must be turned in at the end of the season or the deposit shall not be returned and the remaining balance charged to the Pom member.
- E. When returned, uniforms must be in reasonable condition determined by the condition in which the uniform was issued. If unreasonable damage has occurred, the deposit shall not be refunded.
- F. If a uniform is returned unclean, the uniform will be professionally cleaned and a fee of $25 per uniform will need to be paid before the pom member can try out for a new squad. For those who do not make late turn-in arrangements, a late fee of $10/day may be added each day past the due date. For seniors or those leaving the program, any late or cleaning fees will be deducted from the member's deposit.
- G. If a pom member voluntarily dismisses herself or is removed from the squad, all uniforms must be returned and any outstanding fees must be paid.

SECTION 3. COACHING, TECHNIQUE, BALLETT, and TUMBLING

- A. Coaching fees shall be assessed monthly as part of the pom fee. Additional coaching fees may be necessary to cover choreography and additional practices. Coaching personnel shall be hired upon recommendation of Coordinator(s) and approval of the JHS athletic director. Fees shall be determined according to expertise and the going market rate and presented for approval of the JPBC.

- B. Coaches are expected to adhere to Jenks Athletic Policies and must attend required safety training.
- C. Technique, ballet, and tumbling fees shall be assessed monthly as part of the pom fee. Each member of the pom squad is required to attend each class and will be assessed accordingly. Team fees are split amongst the team regardless of attendance.

SECTION 4. TRY-OUT FEES: Tryout fees collected will be deposited into the general fund.

SECTION 5. OUTSTANDING BALANCES: SECTION 5. OUTSTANDING BALANCES: No member of a JHS Pom Squad shall be allowed to perform at competitions if there are any outstanding balances due to JPBC. A balance is considered outstanding if the payment due on the 1st of the current month is not paid by the 15th of the current month.

Members are encouraged to discuss any financial problems with the Coordinator(s) or Squad Treasurer in order to develop a plan of payment. According to JPS policy, enrollments, grades, and transcripts shall be held at the end of each semester if monies due to JPS activities are not paid in full. If outstanding balances are not paid in full, the pom member will not be allowed to tryout the following year.
